

tomorrow, it may not come. Will you accept Jesus Christ as your personal Saviour NOW.

Question! What must I do to be saved? Answer! Romans 10:13 & 9.

For whosoever shall call upon the name of the Lord shall be saved.

... if thou shalt confess with thy mouth the Lord Jesus, and shalt believe in thine heart that God hath raised him from the dead, thou shalt be saved. Continue confessing your sins with your mouth until you know you're saved. Proof You Are Saved;

"Great Joy comes in".

easyprintkjtracts.net

tomorrow, it may not come. Will you accept Jesus Christ as your personal Saviour NOW.

Question! What must I do to be saved? Answer! Romans 10:13 & 9.

For whosoever shall call upon the name of the Lord shall be saved.

... if thou shalt confess with thy mouth the Lord Jesus, and shalt believe in thine heart that God hath raised him from the dead, thou shalt be saved. Continue confessing your sins with your mouth until you know you're saved. Proof You Are Saved;

"Great Joy comes in".

easyprintkjtracts.net

ALMOST SAVED,

BUT
TOTALLY LOST

ALMOST SAVED,

BUT TOTALLY LOST

tomorrow, it may not come. Will you accept Jesus Christ as your personal Saviour NOW.

Question! What must I do to be saved? Answer! Romans 10:13 & 9.

For whosoever shall call upon the name of the Lord shall be saved.

... if thou shalt confess with thy mouth the Lord Jesus, and shalt believe in thine heart that God hath raised him from the dead, thou shalt be saved. Continue confessing your sins with your mouth until you know you're saved. Proof You Are Saved;

"Great Joy comes in".

easyprintkjtracts.net

tomorrow, it may not come. Will you accept Jesus Christ as your personal Saviour NOW.

Question! What must I do to be saved? Answer! Romans 10:13 & 9.

For whosoever shall call upon the name of the Lord shall be saved.

... if thou shalt confess with thy mouth the Lord Jesus, and shalt believe in thine heart that God hath raised him from the dead, thou shalt be saved. Continue confessing your sins with your mouth until you know you're saved. Proof You Are Saved;

"Great Joy comes in".

easyprintkjtracts.net

ALMOST SAVED,

BUT
TOTALLY LOST

ALMOST SAVED,

BUT
TOTALLY LOST

ALMOST SAVED, BUT
TOTALLY LOST

The word “almost” means “very nearly”, “not quite.” In light of this we may conclude that to come close to the target, or “almost” hit it, means to completely miss the mark.

There is a true story about a man who was “almost” saved; he was close, but not quite. The man to whom I refer was a king by the name of Herod Agrippa.

Standing before Herod Agrippa was the world’s greatest missionary, the Apostle Paul. As the Apostle Paul stood before this great king and told of how he had been saved from a life of sin to serve the living God, the heart of Herod Agrippa was stirred deeply. The king had been moved by what he heard, and apparently came close to becoming a Christian, for we read in Acts 26:28, “Then Agrippa said unto Paul, Almost thou persuadest me to be a Christian.” Almost, saved, but totally lost!

Many people who “planned” to receive Christ as their personal Saviour on Sunday, died on Saturday.

Until a sinner has definitely accepted Jesus Christ as Saviour, he has definitely rejected Him.

You may have the best intentions, but until you have definitely accepted Jesus Christ as Saviour, you have definitely rejected Him.

In 2nd. Corinthians 6:2 we read that, “Behold, now is the accepted time; behold, now is the day of salvation.”

My friend, you have no guarantee of

ALMOST SAVED, BUT
TOTALLY LOST

The word “almost” means “very nearly”, “not quite.” In light of this we may conclude that to come close to the target, or “almost” hit it, means to completely miss the mark.

There is a true story about a man who was “almost” saved; he was close, but not quite. The man to whom I refer was a king by the name of Herod Agrippa.

Standing before Herod Agrippa was the world’s greatest missionary, the Apostle Paul. As the Apostle Paul stood before this great king and told of how he had been saved from a life of sin to serve the living God, the heart of Herod Agrippa was stirred deeply. The king had been moved by what he heard, and apparently came close to becoming a Christian, for we read in Acts 26:28, “Then Agrippa said unto Paul, Almost thou persuadest me to be a Christian.” Almost, saved, but totally lost!

Many people who “planned” to receive Christ as their personal Saviour on Sunday, died on Saturday.

Until a sinner has definitely accepted Jesus Christ as Saviour, he has definitely rejected Him.

You may have the best intentions, but until you have definitely accepted Jesus Christ as Saviour, you have definitely rejected Him.

In 2nd. Corinthians 6:2 we read that, “Behold, now is the accepted time; behold, now is the day of salvation.”

My friend, you have no guarantee of

ALMOST SAVED, BUT
TOTALLY LOST

The word “almost” means “very nearly”, “not quite.” In light of this we may conclude that to come close to the target, or “almost” hit it, means to completely miss the mark.

There is a true story about a man who was “almost” saved; he was close, but not quite. The man to whom I refer was a king by the name of Herod Agrippa.

Standing before Herod Agrippa was the world’s greatest missionary, the Apostle Paul. As the Apostle Paul stood before this great king and told of how he had been saved from a life of sin to serve the living God, the heart of Herod Agrippa was stirred deeply. The king had been moved by what he heard, and apparently came close to becoming a Christian, for we read in Acts 26:28, “Then Agrippa said unto Paul, Almost thou persuadest me to be a Christian.” Almost, saved, but totally lost!

Many people who “planned” to receive Christ as their personal Saviour on Sunday, died on Saturday.

Until a sinner has definitely accepted Jesus Christ as Saviour, he has definitely rejected Him.

You may have the best intentions, but until you have definitely accepted Jesus Christ as Saviour, you have definitely rejected Him.

In 2nd. Corinthians 6:2 we read that, “Behold, now is the accepted time; behold, now is the day of salvation.”

My friend, you have no guarantee of

ALMOST SAVED, BUT
TOTALLY LOST

The word “almost” means “very nearly”, “not quite.” In light of this we may conclude that to come close to the target, or “almost” hit it, means to completely miss the mark.

There is a true story about a man who was “almost” saved; he was close, but not quite. The man to whom I refer was a king by the name of Herod Agrippa.

Standing before Herod Agrippa was the world’s greatest missionary, the Apostle Paul. As the Apostle Paul stood before this great king and told of how he had been saved from a life of sin to serve the living God, the heart of Herod Agrippa was stirred deeply. The king had been moved by what he heard, and apparently came close to becoming a Christian, for we read in Acts 26:28, “Then Agrippa said unto Paul, Almost thou persuadest me to be a Christian.” Almost, saved, but totally lost!

Many people who “planned” to receive Christ as their personal Saviour on Sunday, died on Saturday.

Until a sinner has definitely accepted Jesus Christ as Saviour, he has definitely rejected Him.

You may have the best intentions, but until you have definitely accepted Jesus Christ as Saviour, you have definitely rejected Him.

In 2nd. Corinthians 6:2 we read that, “Behold, now is the accepted time; behold, now is the day of salvation.”

My friend, you have no guarantee of